Other Directions:

A pending dispositive motion cancels any previously scheduled status conference and adjourns the dates set out in this Scheduling Order as to all parties making or opposing the motion. In the event a dispositive motion is made after the completion of discovery, the dates for submitting the Memoranda of Law, Requests to Charge, Proposed Voir Dire, Pretrial Order and start of trial shall be changed from that shown above to three (3) weeks from the decision on the motion. The final pretrial conference, if any, will be scheduled by the Courtroom Deputy.

At any time after the Ready Trial Date, the Court may call the parties to trial upon forty-eight hours' notice. Therefore, counsel must notify the Court and their adversaries in writing of any potential scheduling conflicts, including, but not limited to, trials and vacations, that would prevent at trial at a particular time. Such notice must come before counsel are notified by the Court of an actual trial date, not after. Counsel should notify the Court and all other counsel in writing, at the earliest possible time of any particular scheduling problems involving out-of-town witnesses or other exigencies.

The parties also have the option of trying this action before the Magistrate Judge assigned to this case. See 28 U.S.C. § 636(c). Such a trial would be identical to a proceeding before this Court in all respects, and the judgment would be directly appealable to the Second Circuit Court of Appeals. Given the nature of this Court's criminal docket, it is more likely that electing to proceed before the Magistrate Judge would result in the parties receiving a firm trial date.

All communications to the Court and all filed papers must identify the name and docket number of the case, followed by the initials of the Judge (KMW), contain the writer's typewritten name, party's name, law firm (if any), business address and telephone number, and be signed by the individual attorney responsible for the matter (unless the party is proceeding prose). Any letter to the Court must state the manner in which the letter was served on all other counsel.

If either party wishes to change the dates set forth in this Scheduling Order, it must submit a written request to the Court that complies with § 1.E of Judge Wood's Individual Practices.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR FIRST SCHEDULING CONFERENCE AND SUBSEQUENT STATUS CONFERENCES

Attendance at first Scheduling Conference and subsequent Status Conferences. Each party who is not pro se must be represented by a lawyer who is fully informed about the factual and legal issues of the case and who, under Rule 16(c) as amended, shall have authority to enter into stipulations and to make admissions regarding all matters that the participants may reasonably anticipate maybe discussed. Counsel should give notice of the conference to any persons who are not shown on the docket as counsel but who should be in attendance.

If this case has been settled or otherwise terminated, counsel are not required to appear, provided that a stipulation of discontinuance, voluntary dismissal, or other proof of termination is delivered before the date of the conference to the Courtroom Deputy Clerk of Judge Wood.

Attorneys are directed to consult the Judge's Individual Practices with respect to communications with Chambers and related matters. Communications not in compliance with Judge Wood's individual rules will not be entertained.

&lt;sup>1</sup>It is preferable for counsel to seek to adjourn a conference rather than to send to a conference a lawyer who is not well informed about the factual and legal issues of the case and who lacks the authority described above; otherwise, the cost of opposing counsel's attendance at the conference may be imposed upon counsel who ignored this direction.
